Scout Tips

TIPS ON SELLING POPCORN:

- Wear your uniform.
- Walk on sidewalks and driveways, not lawns or flowers.
- Stay outside the house, even if you are invited in. It is a Scout rule.
- Bring your order form and 2 pens.
- Smile.
- Tell your name and Scout unit.
- Be courteous and polite.
- Tell what the money will be used for – camp, trip, new tents, etc.
- Know what kinds of popcorn you are selling.
- Know when you will deliver the popcorn.
- Say “thank you,” even if the person does not buy anything.
- Be aware that usually 3 out of 5 people buy popcorn. The more people you ask, the more customers you will have.
- If a customer says, “No. We don’t eat popcorn,” suggest a donation to send popcorn to our troops overseas.

TIPS ON STAYING SAFE:

- Wear a face covering
- Have an adult come with you or sell in pairs.
- Avoid selling after dark unless there is an adult with you.
- Sell in pairs.
- Walk on sidewalks, not streets.

TIPS ON DELIVERING POPCORN:

- Tape a “Thank You/ OrderPopcorn.com” card to each order.
- Wear your uniform.
- Have your order form and money envelope with you.
- Collect the customer’s money and then give popcorn to your customers. If the customer has no money, say you will come back another day to deliver the popcorn.
- Know that a check should be made payable to your unit.
- Stay outside the house, even if you are invited in. It is a Scout rule.
- Put money and checks in your money envelope.
- Say “thank you.”
- Avoid carrying large amounts of cash.
- Save your order form so you can go to the same people next year.
